

New York Stock Market

New York, May 3.—That portion of the speculative public which so stubbornly resisted the rise of the past two months in the stock market, today seized upon the sudden reversal in the railroad labor situation as a basis for unfavorable outlook. The reports to depress prices. The selling was neither extensive nor precipitate until the final hour, when offerings fairly overwhelmed the market and prices fell away until in some important instances lowest prices of any day in the past fortnight was reached.

In addition to the unfavorable influences referred to, there were developments of a deterrent character. An overnight advance from the flooded Mississippi section, which pointed to further damage of cotton and other crops running into the millions of dollars. Some encouragement was offered by the official statement from Washington indicating that this country's export of agricultural products for the current fiscal year will go far beyond the $1,000,000,000 mark, the total for the first nine months aggregating $750,000,000, which more than one-third is represented by steel and iron, with copper next in volume.

In the early part of today's operations the selling and resultant weakness centered chiefly around the standard and railway shares with some heaviness in Union Pacific. Later the movement shifted to the cotton and sugar stocks, Baltimore and Ohio, New York Central, Louisville and Nashville and other assured dividend payers, discounting and Erie also reflected a degree of pressure. United States Steel was relatively heavy in transactions. Dealings in steel and reading comprised the great bulk of the day's business. With the usual liberal mixture of Union Pacific, Algonquin, Copper and American Can. Both Can common and preferred advanced to new high records in the early part of the day, but yielded in sympathy with virtually all other issues to the downward movement at the close.

No known developments accounted for the fall of prices, but rumors were busy as to the status of affairs between the railway managers and their employees. The demands of the firemen, supplementing those of the engineers, came as a complete surprise. Forecasts point to a cash gain by our institutions, and the best this support recent statements that general trade conditions are improving.

Bonds were heavy in sympathy with stocks. Total sales, par value, $2,300,000. Panama 3's, registered, advanced 1-8 per cent. on call to-day.

New York, May 3.—Money on call steady, 2-3-4-5; ruling rate, 2-1/2. Time loans easier, sixty days, 3-1/2 to 4-1/2 per cent. six months, 3-1/2 to 4-1/2 per cent. Prime mercantile paper, 4-1/2 to 5-1/2 per cent. Sterling exchange, week, $14.25 to $14.50 for sixty-day bills, $14.85 for demand. Commercial bills, $14.25 to $14.50.
